Media Alert: IRS Extends Reporting Deadlines for Forms 1095-C and 1094-C; ADP® Webinar on January 12 Discusses What This Means for Businesses

ROSELAND, NJ -- (Marketwired) -- 01/05/16 -- Last month, the Internal Revenue Service (IRS) announced delayed reporting due dates for Affordable Care Act (ACA) Forms 1094-C/1095-C and Forms 1094-B/1095-B. ADP is hosting a special ACA Best Practices webcast to help educate clients about this extension and how to navigate the new deadlines, which include:

- | Distributing Form 1095-C to employees: delayed from February 1, 2016 to March 31, 2016
- | Filing Forms 1094-C/1095-C with the IRS: delayed from February 29, 2016 to May 31, 2016, if not filing electronically, and from March 31, 2016 to June 30, 2016, if filing electronically
- | Identical extensions apply for insurers furnishing Form 1095-B to covered individuals, and filing Forms 1094-B/1095-B with the IRS

The free webinar will begin at 11am EST on Tuesday, January 12, and will be led by Ellen Feeney, VP, Legal Counsel, for ADP and Pete Isberg, Vice President, Government Relations, for ADP.
