ADP Positioned Highest in Gartner's Magic Quadrant for Payroll BPO Services for Fifth Consecutive Year

ROSELAND, NJ -- (Marketwired) -- 10/06/16 -- ADP[®] has been named a Leader in payroll business process outsourcing (BPO) services by Gartner, the world's leading information technology research and advisory firm. For a fifth consecutive year, ADP has been positioned highest in Gartner's Payroll BPO Magic Quadrant report, which this year evaluated the capabilities of eight payroll service providers.*

The 2016 study analyzed payroll vendors across all regions, employer sizes, and service-delivery models, evaluating their ability to execute and completeness of vision. According to Gartner, "Leaders perform well by having a clear vision of the market's direction and clients' needs, and by building capabilities and competencies to satisfy clients and sustain their leadership position. Leaders have superior market understanding, which they manifest through marketing and sales strategies that both respond to and lead the market for payroll BPO services. Leaders invest in continuous research and innovation in technology and payroll administration, have strong financial viability, and have customers who consistently testify to a positive relationship."

"For more than six decades, ADP has helped some of the world's largest companies, government organizations and small businesses manage their payroll needs," said Carlos Rodriguez, president and chief executive officer of ADP. "We are extremely proud to be recognized by Gartner for our superior market understanding and continuous investment in research and innovation in technology and payroll administration."
