

ADP Recognized on FORTUNE Magazine's 2019 List of "The World's Most Admired Companies" for 13 Consecutive Years

ROSELAND, N.J., Jan. 22, 2019 /PRNewswire/ -- ADP®, the leading global provider of human capital management (HCM) solutions, has been selected as one of FORTUNE® magazine's "The World's Most Admired Companies®." This marks the 13th consecutive year the company has been named to the annual list, which spotlights companies with consistently strong performance and reputations amid changing business conditions.

"It is humbling to see our organization once again be recognized by FORTUNE," said Carlos Rodriguez, president and chief executive officer of ADP. "Everything we do at ADP is about people; and in a world increasingly driven by technology, we are continuously focused on innovation to change the world of work for our associates, clients and partners. It is an honor to once again be among the most admired companies in the world."

FORTUNE collaborates with partner Korn Ferry Hay Group on this corporate reputation survey, which evaluates approximately 1,500 companies, including the 1,000 largest U.S. companies ranked by revenue and non-U.S. companies in the FORTUNE Global 500® database with revenues of $10 billion or more. Korn Ferry Hay Group surveys 680 companies from 29 countries to select the 15 largest for each international industry and the 10 largest for each U.S. industry. Executives, directors and analysts are then asked to rate companies in their own industry on nine criteria, from investment value to social responsibility, and this vote results in the 52 industry lists. A company's score must rank in the top half of its industry survey to be listed.

The complete list appears in the February issue of the magazine, which will be available on newsstands today. To learn more about FORTUNE magazine's "The World's Most Admired Companies" list, please visit here.
